

The holidays begin as soon as you get to the airport!

Become an instant movie star... Say cheese for the camera... Are you crazy about "fooding", the new ultra-modern cuisine? It's all happening at the airport! For the holiday season, nearly 3.5 million passengers are expected to pass through the Paris airports. Aéroports de Paris has prepared a little something special for its customers, whether awaiting take-off or just landed.

Strike a "Studio Harcourt" pose at the airport

Black-and-white photography and posing like a legend of the silver screen: who hasn't dreamed of indulging in a Studio Harcourt photo session? This year, from 22 December to 6 January, Aéroports de Paris is playing host to Studio Harcourt in the form of a Studio Duo photo booth, located in Hall M of Terminal 2E. The booth is there for all passengers, up to four at a time, and free of charge! Whether posing alone or together with your family, the booth will give you a portrait that bears the distinctive mark of the world famous Harcourt photo studio, with its signature classic movie look.

Become the king of the kitchen!

For holiday makers who have only ten minutes to spare, Aéroports de Paris offers the chance to become an apprentice chef. Give in to the temptation of a sweet and sour recipe, learn how to handle a sieve, or get vegetables nice and tasty. These are just a few of the simple techniques and recipes you could learn during a mini-lesson with our chefs, followed by tasting. Available from 18 to 23 December in Hall L of Terminal 2E, at Paris-Charles de Gaulle airport.

Sport and adrenaline with PlayStation Move

Gaming enthusiasts will have the chance to try out the latest game: Sports Champions 2, using Playstation Move, a motion sensing technology. A simulator game featuring 6 different sports: golf, tennis, boxing, archery, bowling, and skiing. Contests, challenges, and adrenaline are guaranteed from Friday to Sunday, 21–23 December, in the PlayStation area of Hall A, at the Orly South Terminal and in Hall M of Terminal 2E at Paris-Charles de Gaulle.

Travel trunks packed with souvenirs

Several Mon Souvenir de Paris ('my souvenir of Paris') stands, shaped like giant travel trunks, have been set up in the luggage delivery areas of Paris-Orly and Paris-Charles de Gaulle airports. Decorated with images of famous monuments and districts around the city. From 20 to 26 December, in Terminal 2C of Paris-Charles de Gaulle, a caricaturist will also be on hand to sketch passengers with the famous Place du Tertre in the background. In Terminal 2C of Paris-Charles de Gaulle, passengers will be able to have their photo taken and get one last souvenir of their trip to Paris, in front of an Eiffel Tower setting. Passengers are invited to help themselves to these areas free of charge.

The airport hasn't forgotten about the kids either!

During the school holidays, many passengers are travelling with their families. To cater to the particular needs of these passengers, every weekend during the school holidays, Aéroports de Paris is offering an Accès Famille ('family access') service to make going through security a little easier. Security personnel and other agents, who know how to adapt their communication to young listeners, will welcome children and explain to them, in a friendly way, the security check procedures. Children will be given our newly printed book of games, published in partnership with Disney Hachette Presse, featuring Mickey Mouse and friends. This service is available in all terminals of the Paris airports.
