Covid-19: Groupe ADP and the full airport community involves to provide with 200 digital tablets for the AP-HP (Public Hospitals group of Paris)

Groupe ADP through its corporate foundation and its digital technologies subsidiary Hub One, as well as the members of the airport community's endowment fund paves their contribution for the mobilization against Covid-19 virus in France.

The airport community's endowment fund was created to bring together projects aimed at the integration of young people and the fight against illiteracy situations that employees working at its airports. Chaired by Sophie Pécriaux, President of City One, airport community's endowment fund gathers today the following companies: Atalian, Hub Safe, City One, Mulliez-Flory, Groupe 3S, Mahola, Alyzia, ICTS, Ladybird Ground Services, Servair, Samsic, GFS, CAMAS, Europe Handling Group, Synergie, AFTRAL, Lagardère Travel Retail, Securitas, Leader, Epigo, Otessa, GTP Conseil and Groupe ADP.

The entire airport community has today decided to dedicate this fund, through human and material resources, in order to support the AP-HP (Assistance Publique des Hôpitaux de Paris): the French public hospitals community of Paris. In the coming days, Groupe ADP will hand over nearly 200 digital tablets to AP-HP on behalf of all donors, in order to allow hospital patients to keep in touch with their families.

In this context, Moussa Sissoko, sponsor of Groupe ADP's corporate foundation for 5 years, is committed to support us by offering half of these digital tablets.

In addition, warehouse logistics staff from the airport community will come to strengthen the AP-HP teams to support in their mission. A first team of ten people has already been involved.

Groupe ADP and the full airport community wish also to show by this concrete action their solidarity with the sick people, their love ones and the hospital staff involves in the fight against the epidemic
