Groupe ADP is mobilising to help disaster victims in Mayotte

On Saturday December 14th, an exceptionally violent cyclone hit the Mayotte archipelago, leaving behind considerable damage, several hundred victims and families in great distress.

Today, solidarity is essential to help the affected populations.

Groupe ADP has already released €30,000 in aid and is today launching a donation campaign among its employees, to support reconstruction and aid efforts on the ground. For every donation made by an employee, the group will match it with an equal amount.

All donations collected will be donated to Médecins du Monde, which is working on the ground to provide rapid solutions for disaster victims.
